REVELATIONS

Praise the Lord

The grace of God is upon you. Let your investment be in Spirit. What you do in Spirit will remain, others will not last long. God is faithful to edify your Spirit. Pray for a constant heart, unshakable and approved by God, so our thoughts from heart changes into showers of blessings to many.

Walk in Spirit you will reach the promise. God has given His Spirit now to go before the enemy. Think twice before taking an action because your soul needs rest to think. The more you wait, the more you hold peace. Follow peace and you see God. Without peace and happiness you can't get breakthrough. The Lord is near to you if you ask earnestly, seek Him with diligence. Don't be proud of yourself because it has not come from your spirit, but from your heart. Make your heart humbled and God is pleased with you. Don't wait for your blessings, it is following you, you just follow Jesus. All goodness and righteousness follow you. Don't be afraid seeing negative things, but this is test of faith. The one who called you will keep you safe from the devil's attack. God can change your circumstances if you don't turn right or left from the word. God is faithful, He will never allow you to fail.

Be wise in the sight of Lord rather than before the world. The one who knows God is the wisest person. The one who knows His plan prospers in his life. As long as Jesus is in you, you are the light. Don't put out the light, because you are honoured because of this light. There is no time to waste, as we have an assignment from heaven, that is for the kingdom purpose. Be happy because you are called. Rejoice because you are approved. When you are in trouble refer the Bible, and you will get guidance. The word is power and take you to success. The enemy may close your doors, but by the word, by faith, doors will be opened. Wait for the Lord to see His work. Don't allow Him to change His plans just because you choose another option. The more you wait, there is something new. God will deliver you from every pain and injuries as Jesus took all our pain on the cross. It is good to dream godly plans as it brings forth good things. The Lord will teach you the way to go, listen to His voice and your family will be blessed. He will provide you everything needed for the ministry. Even the government will stand for you, it is a privilege given to you. Keep holiness and you never fail. The peace of Jesus is upon you, so you will conquer. You can do everything by the power of Jesus, the one who called you. You can fly like angels, why do you doubt? If Peter can walk like Jesus on the sea, why can't you walk like angels.

Ephesians 2:19 says "Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;" God has given you authority above everything, so walk with power. What you see is not real but what you hope is the fact, but examine whether you are in the word. Jesus has taught us to be wise like a serpent means the serpents are very careful in coming out from their holes, Jesus has send you as lamp before the wolves, so we need godly wisdom to live in this world. Godly wisdom is just the opposite of worldly wisdom. If you follow the Holy Spirit you will see success, but if you follow the world, you will perish. Happiness should come from understanding, if you lack it you will fail. Be faithful to the Lord and He will honour you by giving His power and authority. When power comes, everything you need will come. Get ready, there is a journey before you, your calling is revealed and you cannot stay in one place for a long time, because the wind blows and you are taken along with the wind.

Meditate the word, the Holy Spirit will teach you what to meditate and when to meditate, the right word will be given for every particular day and will tell you the best time for you that may produce results, which may vary from one another. The Lord is your guide, will lead you to the right place. No evil shall fall upon you because you are in God's shelter. Know how much He cares you. Be in Him and see the breakthrough. You don't have to pray, just desire according to His will and you receive. Rejoice for He has blessed you. Give thanks for He has given peace to you. Be straight forward, the Lord will honour you. You will not be lost in trial, but His hand will deliver you. You are in God and everything you have is not yours. Allow Him to rein you, Allow yourself to walk in Spirit, you will be free from sin. The enemy expects your failure but you have to overcome enemies plans by dying in flesh and walking in Spirit. Don't be afraid of your rival because God is your protector. The enemy will leave you when you start walking in the word. The word should be in your life and that is your address. Others should read the word in your life and that is your testimony and will help you in time of trouble. God is of miracles, only supernatural, every time the new miracle. The river Jordan was divided not like the Red sea opened, and the Jericho wall was not broken like the river Jordan divided. Every time there is a new and beyond our understanding. The Lord is our provider and redeemer and is answered if you are His beloved and does not respond to those who are enmity with God.

In Jesus name Amen.
Blessings!
This is your time.

REVELATIONS

Praise the Lord

You will be free from bondage, when you meet Jesus in your life. You are called to stand for God. Trust in God, He has great plans in your life. You are called to minister Him. God is giving you the grace to forgive.

Don't look for profit or gain when you walk with God, sacrifice yourselves and you are dead in Christ, so don't evaluate what you got, but keep the relationship with God as it is the will of God to walk with Him. Hanok walked with God and He took him for God loved him so much. Everything ends in goodness, even though things are not going well, you may be stagnant and getting bored don't be upset, what Jesus said, rejoice because your name is written in the book of heaven. Rejoice in Spirit and not in flesh, because what you do in flesh will not remain but in Spirit will last for ever.

Maybe you are carrying much pain, it is for the blessings of other's. Jesus lived for God's plan in this world likewise you live for kingdom of God, so you will be like a tool in the hands of God. Very soon you will see the breakthrough when you see the things in Spirit. You have God's protection, wherever you go, His presence go with you. In your eyes you see problems, think about Daniel what He did when He was thrown in lion's den, he trusted in God, so in your problems, you hope and trust your guardian, that is God Jehovah. He will bless you and protect you. In the end you say God has blessed me. There will be an increase when you walk in Spirit. The finance will be blessed and health is restored. You will be a new person in Christ. Don't trust any man who has breath in nostrils, trust only in God, He will lead you.

Things are changing by the grace, you only want to stand in the wind's direction. Fear only the Lord, you will be honoured. A promotion is coming to you, you will see success. Your address is going to change. You may be waiting, but our God is great, He will work for you and deliver you. Peace to you. Don't be upset, even things are delayed, but in the end you see victory. You will go out in peace, joy and blessed. It is God standing for you. The favour of the Lord is upon you. Victory and grace are with you. There is provision and you don't lack anything because the Lord is your shepherd. You will hear the voice of God, do open your heart and ears. The money is in the wallet, so it is multiplied by grace. You are called as a royal priest and the royal anointing is upon you. Just see how God is working, He will send helpers, so no stagnation. It is time to move. The Holy Spirit will direct.

Preach the word with power and wait in wilderness until God gives you grace, when you have grace, there will be flow of Spirit.

Keep awake at night and pray till the dawn breaks, God want to tell you the secrets of the kingdom at this precious time. The enemy will be strong at night hours, but your prayer will pull the strongholds down. Be courageous says the Lord, don't be afraid of the enemy. Everything is for goodness. Sometimes you have to learn from certain situations that is not useful at present time, but in the end you come to know that it was godly plan.

A miracle is going to happen in your family. Wait for God to move and you will be an history.

REVELATIONS

The Lord is great. He is the God of Israel. The money comes and goes, everything will change, men also change, but word of God never changes it will work as much faith you have. There may be waiting for a long time, but utilize your time for Christ. When you wait for someone, don't get weared, but God has given you some time, to praise heavenly Father. Whenever you get time, don't be lazy, but speak in tongues, the Lord will be glorified. You are a busy person, All the time submitted to the hands of God, then how can anyone ask 'are you free ?' You are totally sold to your master, and master has to decide, whether you are free. Our master is Jesus Christ, the one who enlisted you in the army.

There are many rivals, but you have the anointing, don't loose your anointing, it is much precious and is grace. Don't expect from people, because God is your provider, and will carry you even to the old age. When needed, He commands the angels to guard you, in addition to the wall of fire. There is a door opened for your deliverance and it may be a prophetic word from above or a biblical word, you have to obtain this word by keeping yourself in God's presence. Loneliness and silence are needed for receiving from God, so don't run away from the wilderness. It is your platform for the next level. Enjoy your life when tried. Find peace when you are broken and pursue love when you are hated. The test and trials are a part of your life. Like a student who answers the exam questions, you have to come out from the trial, one by one.

Happiness is the key to success. The devil doesn't like you to be happy because when you are happy you will see blessings. When you are sad you will see failures. This is a trial. The only way is to surrender into the hands of God. David was the anointed king of Israel, but he is still in wilderness, but there is a time to be in hidden and time to be exposed, when you are faithful in trial, God will honour you in public. Peace is what you need. You have to accept the failures to have a good growth. John 3:30 says the more you are lowered the more His grace is revealed for that let Him increase and you be decreased. Failures are the doors to grace. Trust in Him and you get grace.

Very soon you will leave the place. Holy Spirit is moving. By grace you will be chosen. There is peace. Follow peace and you find joy. There is a wall of fire around you, that is your guarantee. Jesus is our guarantee, so the plans of enemy will not work. New doors are opening. God will chose those who are faithfull. Expect a miracle at any time. Don't judge yourself when you don't see anything. Wait until you see a sign. The waiting period is not a wasting period it is a training period. In the end you will testify. Miracles are coming.

In Jesus name Amen.

Blessings !
